

Second Sunday of Easter Year A

23 April, 2017

On the second Sunday of Easter the Liturgy of the Word invites us to approach the throne of Mercy and cry out with St. Thomas Apostle: "My Lord and My God" (Jn 20:28).

Divine Mercy Sunday celebrates the merciful love of God shining through the Easter Triduum and the whole Easter mystery. This feast recovers an ancient liturgical tradition, reflected in a teaching attributed to St. Augustine about the Easter Octave, which he called "the days of mercy and pardon," and the Octave Day itself "the compendium of the days of mercy".

On this Sunday, our Gospel (John 20: 19-31) recounts one of the many appearances of the Risen Lord to his disciples. Today St John tells how Jesus appears to the Apostles, coming through locked doors and says, "Peace be with you" breathing upon them the Holy Spirit and communicating His authority to forgive sins.

Thomas wasn't in the room when the Risen Lord appeared to the other disciples. On that evening, he missed out on the Lord's bestowal of the gifts of peace and forgiveness. Thomas seems to have cut himself off from the community of the disciples. He went off on his own to nurse his wounds. He is not unlike so many today who, for a variety of reasons, have cut themselves off from the church. When we cut ourselves off from the community of believers, we become very vulnerable. For all its flaws and failings, the church is the place where we encounter the Risen Lord. The Lord continues to stand among the community of disciples, especially when we gather in worship and pray, when we gather to serve others in the Lord's name. Thomas found the Risen Lord only when he returned to be with Peter and the other Apostles. We too will find the strength to believe, to carry out the commandments, and to respect every human life and dignity, when we maintain close unity with the Church. We all know that the best way to maintain the close unity with the Risen Lord and others is the Sunday Eucharist.

ANZAC day and EASTER Easter is a moveable feast. Frequently, as in this year, Easter is close to Anzac Day. Inevitably they cast a shadow upon each other. Both are about paying the supreme sacrifice.

Australians, together with New Zealanders, remember the sacrifice of so many of our armed forces on Anzac day each year. It is right and proper to do so.

Christians, together with all sane people, find no joy in war. Peace not war must always be our goal. Yet when war is necessary those who take up arms on our behalf must be supported and respected. When they are injured in the course of such action they should be confident of our nation's assistance. When they are killed, we should give thanks to God for their sacrifice, and maintaining fitting memorials to remind us, and future generations, of the cost of our freedom.

The cost of laying down life for other people can never be measured. The suffering of those who lose a loved one this way continues throughout life. Even though the cause was just and the action successful, the cost is as high as humans can pay.

Yet the sacrifices that we remember this week can heighten our appreciation of the cost of Easter. For while we may die for the sake of a good man or our family or our nation - Jesus died for his enemies. To lay down your life for your enemies - even when they are filled with enmity - because they are enemies - is an extraordinary and extreme sacrifice. And Christians can never forget that we were the enemies for whom he died.

It is key to the message of Easter. "For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. For one will scarcely die for a righteous person— though perhaps for a good person one would dare even to die— but God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us." (Romans 5:6-8)

Refrain: This day was made by the Lord, let us rejoice, let us be glad. This day was made by the Lord, let us rejoice in salvation!

I thank you, your love is eternal,
you have given me life,
You have given me life.
I will proclaim the wonders you do! R

GLORY TO GOD

Refrain:
Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you,
we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory.
Lord God, heavenly King, O God,
almighty Father. R

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
You take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us
You take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. R

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
You alone are the most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God
the Father. R Amen

GIFTS PROCESSIONFirmly I Believe And Truly

Firmly I believe and truly
God is three and God is one;
and I next acknowledge duly manhood taken by the Son.

And I trust and hope most fully
In that manhood crucified;
and each thought and deed unruly
do to death, as he has died.

Simply to his grace and wholly light and life and strength belong, and I love supremely, solely,
him the holy, him the strong.

And I hold in veneration,
For the love of him alone,
Holy Church as his creation
And her teachings as his own

Praise and thanks be ever given,
with and through th'angelic host,
to the God of earth and heaven,
Father, Son and Holy Ghost.
Text 1801-1890 John Henry Newman

MEMORIAL ACCLAMATION (ICEL)

Save us Saviour of the world, for by your Cross and resurrection you have set us free.

COMMUNION PROCESSIONHeart of Jesus, Heart of Mercy

I will take you from the nations,
And gather you from the world:
I will bring you in to your own land
And you shall be my people
And I will be your God,
And in mercy, my love will hold the world.

Refrain:
Give us new hearts, O Lord
Give us new hearts O Lord
Give us hearts of flesh;
Remove our hearts of stone

Through your Spirit, deep within us,
We become your loving face,
And our grasping hands will open in compassion
And our frowning eyes will widen to see
And know again all the beauty in every human heart. R

Heart of Jesus, heart of mercy,
loving face of God revealed.
You proclaimed the word, 'not sacrifice
but mercy'
For in you we see the Father who
longs for our return,
Ever faithful, His covenant of love. R

Peace Prayer

Lord, make me a means of your peace.
Where there's hatred grown,
let me sow your love.
Where there's inj'ry, Lord,
let forgiveness be my sword.
Lord, make me a means of your peace.

Lord, grant me to seek and to share:
Less to be consoled than to help console.
Less be understood than to understand your good.

Lord, make me a means of your Peace

Lord, grant me to seek and to share:
To receive love less than to give love free.
Just to give in thee, just receiving from your tree.

Lord, make me a means of your peace.

Lord, grant me to seek and to share:
To forgive in thee, you've forgiven me.
For to die in thee is eternal life to me.
Lord, make me a means of your peace.
