

The Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time Year C

SUNDAY February 3 2013

Do You Hear What I Hear?

Hitler was said to have mesmerised people with his compelling words. He was a charismatic leader who rallied a whole nation around him. And he killed six million Jews.

Martin Luther King Jnr. also mesmerised people with his visionary words. He was a charismatic speaker who rallied a subject race to claim their dignity and freedom. And he was killed by those who could not hear his words.

Mother Teresa mesmerised people with her simple words. She was a charismatic doer who gathered in those who had no one so they could die with someone. She died hearing the words of comfort she spoke so often: Jesus loves you.

The power of words to move people can hardly be disputed. We know they can stir up hate and violence as well as love and gentleness. The word of God is a two-edged sword. Those who proclaim it must remain steadfast even when resisted and rejected. Those who hear it must be open to a new understanding of God who works for the salvation of all. We are both proclaimers and hearers and the sword cuts us both ways.

All of us struggle to hear and respond to God's word in our lives. This Sunday we are confronted with the reality that we are not always going to like what we hear in God's word. God's word always takes us beyond where we are (or where we want to go.) It is the very word which questions our status quo and asks us to give up our own wills and embrace God's will. It is the very word which nudges us to surrender ourselves and our own small world to encompass the larger vision of a world in which God assures us that all are met with love and dignity.

In our desire to be accepted, how readily we adjust what we say to what our audience will accept! Announcing the message of the gospel is not undertaken for the sake of being accepted but in order to be faithful to God's word. And, as those baptised into Christ's death and resurrection, being faithful to God's word always means dying to self for the sake of others.

Stewardship Reflection

In today's second reading we find one of the most beautiful and familiar passages in the Bible; a recitation of fifteen characteristics of Christian love typically read at weddings and anniversary celebrations. Of course, this was not what Saint Paul had in mind when he was chastising the Christian community at Corinth for its lack of love. He admonished the members of the community to exercise better stewardship of Christian love. The practice of patience, humility, joy, truth, peace, affirmation, and hope are ways good stewards put love into action. Might there be one or two of these attributes we can work on in order to grow in our love for God and others?

Young, beautiful and rich, Agatha lived a life consecrated to God and because of her refusal to deviate from that path, she suffered death as a martyr.

Wed Feb 6 St Paul Miki (1562-1597) and Companions, Martyrs

Paul Miki, the son of a Japanese military leader, joined the Jesuit Order in 1580, and became known for his eloquent preaching. Crucified in 1597 with 25 companions, Paul's words from the cross were: 'The only reason for my being killed is that I have taught the doctrine of Christ. I thank God it is for this reason that I die. I believe that I am telling the truth before I die. I know you believe me and I want to say to you all once again: Ask Christ to help you become happy. I obey Christ. After Christ's example, I forgive my persecutors. I do not hate them. I ask God to have pity on all, and I hope my blood will fall on my fellow men as a fruitful rain.'

With more and more residents joining the community, it is no wonder our event calendar has shot through the roof.
