

The Feast of St Peter and St Paul
Year A

SUNDAY June 29 2014

Let us work together for our Parish

Once on the feast of Saints Peter and Paul I heard a homily that began with a question. A priest asked why two great saints like Peter and Paul share a single feast day. Then he speculated, "Well, they couldn't get along here on earth, so God put them together in heaven."

This joke perhaps contains some truth. In his letter to the Galatians, St. Paul recounts a clash with Peter which happened at Antioch. However, Paul also makes it evident that he held the fisherman in high esteem. In the same letter he states that he spent fifteen days with Peter. (Gal 1:18) Afterwards in his letter to the Corinthians Paul again mentions Peter as the first apostle to see the Risen Jesus. Celebrating the memorial of these two great witnesses of Jesus Christ we need to keep in mind that at the same time today's feast is a solemn confession that the Church is one, holy, catholic and apostolic. In all its differences the Church is one and we recall this fact when every week we recite the creed together and one of the last things we say is "I believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic church."

As ordinary men, Peter and Paul might have avoided each other from time to time. Peter was a fisherman from the Sea of Galilee and Paul an educated intellectual trained in the Greek schools. But Jesus brought them together as a sign for his Church in which all people would find a new place to call home. Together they worked to build the church. Together they witnessed to Christ. Together they suffered the death of their Lord. They had a unity that went beyond all differences.

Through their lives they teach us about the depth of Christian commitment. For Peter and Paul, insight into Jesus' true identity brought new demands and responsibilities to work together. Today as we continue the mission of the Apostles we want to keep in mind that together we are greater than individuals. The liturgical text always calls on us to be united and to work together. Eucharistic Prayer #3 says; "...grant that we, who are nourished by the Body and Blood of your Son and filled with his Holy Spirit, may become one body, one spirit in Christ".

Prayer #2 says; "humbly we pray that, partaking of the Body and Blood of Christ, we may be gathered into one by the Holy Spirit".

We pray these texts straight after consecration and in the most holy moment of Mass the Church prays not necessarily for holiness but for unity and togetherness amongst her children. Because working together like Sts Peter and Paul we too, regardless of our differences, are able to make our Parish a foretaste of God's Kingdom and a place which people of different backgrounds can call home .

Unity and Authority

The commission given to Peter in today's gospel implies a great authority—"binding and loosening" was an effective authority in the life of Israel. Jesus' words refer to the final "Kingdom"; the authority given to Peter concerns the Church, or Assembly, called together by God as a foreshadowing of the Kingdom. With the passing of time, as the steadfast faith of the Roman Church, nurtured by the Apostles, became a rallying point for the Church's unity, this was seen as a fulfilment of the promise of Jesus to Peter. In 1995, in a remarkable gesture, Pope John Paul II, in the encyclical, Ut unum sint, called upon Christians of all traditions to assist the Holy See to understand how it should carry out its mission as the Church's principle of unity. Let us pray today that this desire will be fulfilled.

The Francis Effect

The church is called to be the house of the Father, with doors always wide open. One concrete sign of such openness is that our church doors should always be open so that if someone, moved by the Spirit, comes there looking for God he or she will not find a closed door. Pope Francis Nov. 2013

Vinnies Community Sleepout

Vinnies Gold Coast is organising a Community Sleepout to help raise funds and awareness of homelessness in the Gold Coast Community. They need your help to make a difference in the lives of the men, women and children impacted by homelessness in our community.

The Gold Coast Vinnies Sleepout will be held at TSS College on Thursday, July 10, commencing at 5.30pm.

Sister Elisabeth is on the organising Committee, and will be sleeping out for the night! If you would like to join her for the Sleepout you can register at www.communitysleepout.org.au or if you would like to sponsor her all donations will be very greatly received. Also, would anyone be able to lend Sister Elisabeth a Sleeping Bag for the night?

Children's Liturgy on Holidays

A big thank you to all volunteers who have created meaningful Children's Liturgy of the Word during school term. Our parish is very fortunate to have such a dedicated team of volunteers who share with three different groups of children each Sunday. Parents planning to enrol their children for Sacramental preparation 2015 are encouraged to bring their children to Children's Liturgy. Children's Liturgy activities will resume after the school holidays. New volunteers willing to join the Children's Liturgy team are always welcome! Please contact Sister Helen helenw@scp.org.au

Vocation View: Through our Baptism, we are called to not only follow Christ but to be witnesses through our family, work and social lives. Let our actions and words reflect the love that Christ has for each of us and proclaim His Kingdom.

Congratulations and Thanks

To Father Vince who today Sunday, June 29 the Feast of Sts Peter and Paul is celebrating the 55th anniversary of his Ordination to the Priesthood. The Parish offers you their Best Wishes Father Vince and Thanks you for all the great work you do for us in our Parish. We look forward to you spending many more years with us.

Ministers Workshop

Any parishioner of Ashmore, Labrador or Southport who would like to become a Reader, Minister of Eucharist or take communion to people in Hospital, Nursing Homes or people in their own homes, Sister Elisabeth will be offering workshops on Saturday, July 12, at Mary Immaculate Church. The Readers workshop will be at 9.00am.

Ministers of Eucharist at 10.00am. For those taking communion outside Mass, your workshop will be at 11.00am.

It is essential you let Sister Elisabeth know on 55 102 222 or lis@scp.org.au so relevant material will be ready for you.

It is the generosity of parishioners to partake in various ministries that gives positive life to our community, so please consider if you would like to help.

Winter Appeal: Thank you so much Parishioners for your generous response to our Winter Appeal. $4,500 was received in cash plus a mountain of food items for our hampers. This will make such a difference to the desperate people we visit. Our Hamper Food Bins stay in the Labrador and Ashmore Churches all year, and your regular donations of food items for the hampers is a huge help to us. You draw closer to Christ when you serve those who are poor.

Supporting our Conference in the wonderful way that you do by giving of your prayers, time, money, food, clothing, blankets, etc.—is indeed an important way for you to serve those who are excluded, in need and lonely.

Keep a copy and pray this prayer daily for nine weeks.

Feast days of the Week

Thursday July 3, St Thomas, Apostle.

Thomas deserves his place in the sun for a whole host of reasons, not the least that he is the only person in the Gospel to address Jesus as "God". This expression of deep faith also is supplemented by an earlier statement to Jesus where he tells his Master: 'We do not know where you are going, so how can we know the way.' From this statement we hear a response from Jesus that is, according to one liturgical source, quite profound: 'I am the way the truth and the life.' As one of the 12 Apostles, Thomas has become much maligned for his doubts following the resurrection of Jesus and His appearance to the disciples in the Upper Room. However there are other legends about Thomas that have no doubt served to redeem him. For instance, there is one that he was the only witness to the Assumption of Mary and that as she rose heavenwards she dropped her girdle. There also is the long-held tradition in Edessa, Mesopotamia that Thomas was the Apostle of India.

Worth a Smile

Women's Revenge. Cash, cheque or card? I asked, after folding items the woman wished to purchase. As she fumbled in her purse, I noticed a remote control for a television set in her purse. 'So, do you always carry your TV remote?' I asked. 'No', she replied, 'But my husband refused to come shopping with me, and I thought this was the most evil thing I could do to him legally.'

Cleaning-up at Guardian Angels Church

The wardrobe in the priests' sacristy at Guardian Angels has a number of albs hanging amongst the priests vestments. If you own or use one of these albs, would you please remove it until further notice. It would be a good idea to clearly mark your alb with your name before it is returned to the wardrobe. Any albs left at the end of July will be given a new home.
